FIRST AND ORIGINAL WAVE OF SCANDINAVIAN PEOPLE CAME FROM THE NORTH POLE. ALIENS TAMPERED WITH THEIR DNA TO CREATE ALIEN HUMAN HYBRIDS. IT'S A BEST KEPT SECRET

Magdalenian People

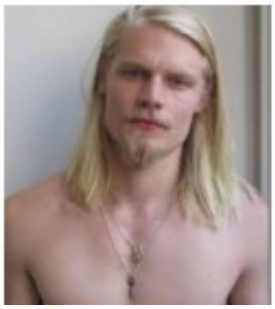

- Descendants of the Cro-Magnon (earliest modern humans).
- Appear throughout Europe during the Upper Paleolithic (Old Stone Age 40,000-10,000 BCE) and early Mesolithic Period (10,000 BCE – 5,000 BCE). The dates: 15,000-7,000 BCE
- They set up semi-permanent residence and maintained a hunter gathering lifestyle.
- Similarities in Upper Paleolithic paintings indicate a possible continental network of early communication between groups.

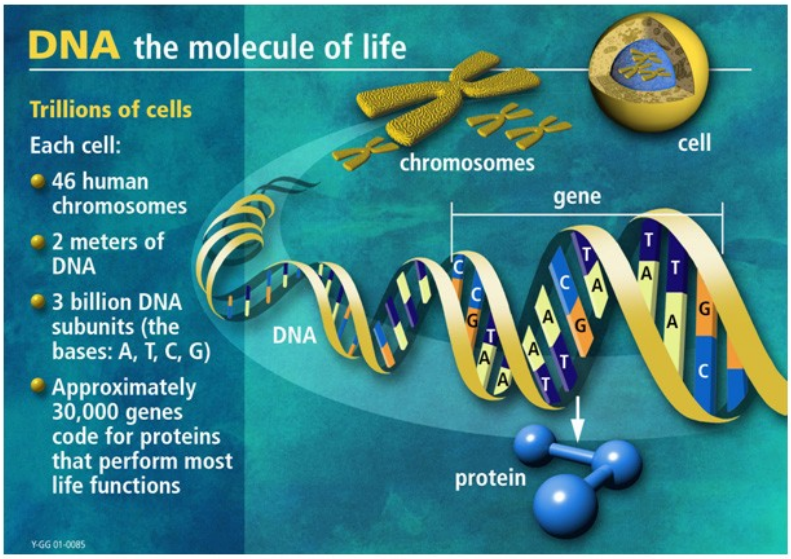

Scientists Claim Cro Magnon DNA Fully Modern, Unchanged for 28,000 Years
A Cro-Magnon DNA sequence 28,000 years old was obtained from fossil bones discovered in the Paglicci cave, in Italy. The results show that the DNA is identical to the DNA sequences of certain modern Europeans. The DNA sequence has remained static and unchanged over 28,000 years. This means that Cro Magnon was a fully modern individual who perhaps had a larger brain capacity. (1)

According to Prof. Francois Bordes, world renown archeologist and former director of the Laboratory of Prehistory at the University of Bordeaux, the Aurignacian [Cro Magnon] tool tradition without doubt originates outside of Europe, ready-made, although from where is still a mystery (Bordes, 1968).

MARY MAGDALENE IN THE BIBLE IS LINKED TO THIS ORIGINAL MAGDALENIAN MOVEMENT THAT CAME INTO OUR WORLD ORIGINALLY

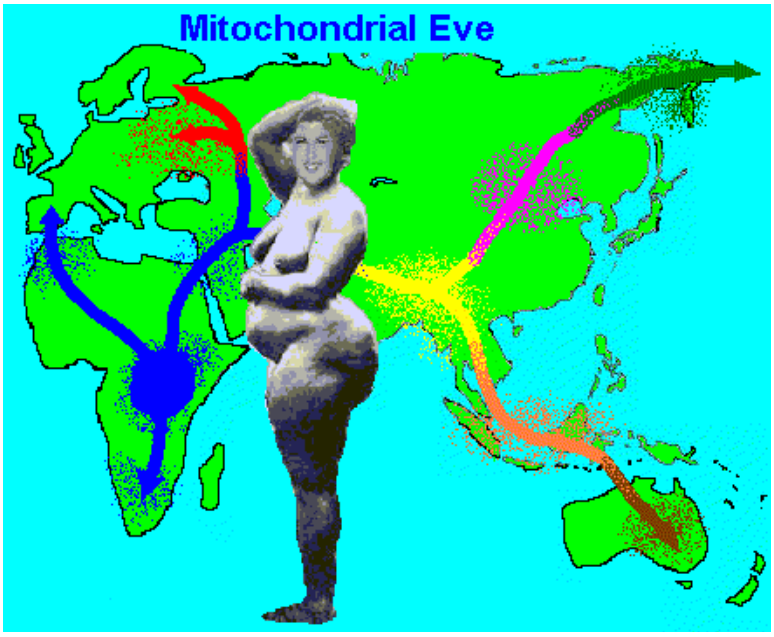

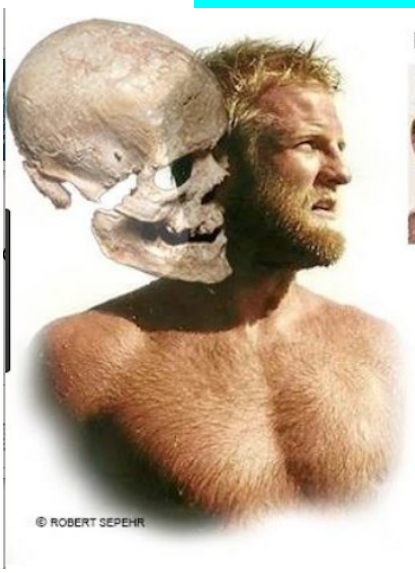

Geneticists have detected a fourth ancestral "tribe" which contributed to the modern European gene pool.

Research shows Europeans are a mixture of three major ancestral populations of indigenous Scandinavian farmers from the north and the later migrations from the Middle Eastern who arrived (from the east) in the Bronze Age. Which appear to have included Mary Magdalene's bloodline from Northern Israel.

DNA from ancient remains in the Caucasus has now revealed a fourth population that fed into the mix. Details are published in Nature Communications, external.

Scientific advances in recent years have allowed researchers to retrieve and analyze genomes from ancient burials. The genome is the genetic blueprint for a human, contained within the nucleus of every cell.

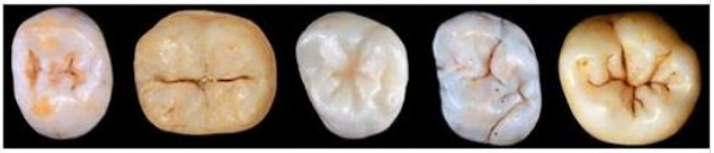

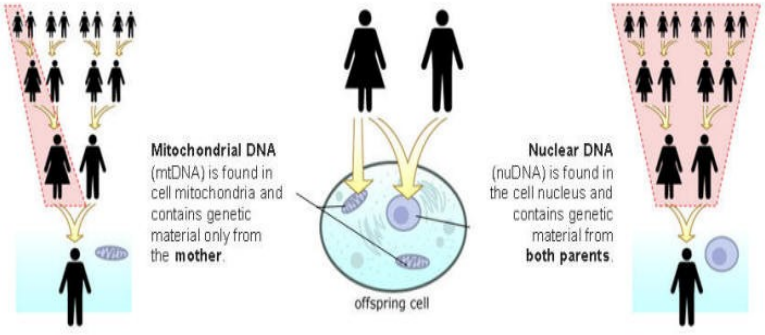

No Known Hominin is Ancestor of Neanderthals and Modern Human

The researchers, using quantitative methods focused on the shape of dental fossils, find that none of the usual suspects fits the expected profile of an ancestor of Neanderthals and Modern humans (Cro magnon).

CURRENT BELIEFS ABOUT SCANDINAVIAN ORIGINS ARE NOT ACCURATE

The new deluge of data has transformed our understanding of the modern human genetic landscape. It has also shown that present-day genetic patterns are poor guides to these ancient ones that populated Scandinavia, Europe and the world in general.

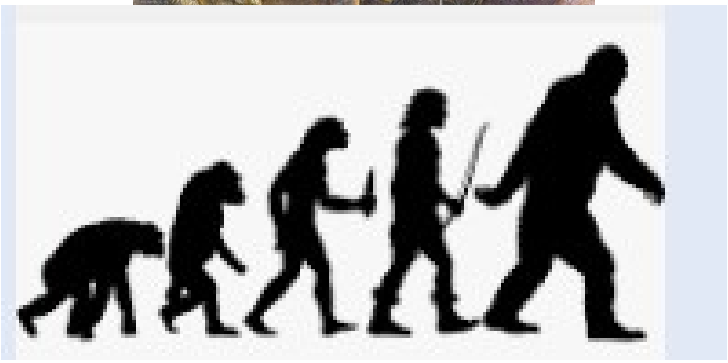

SURPRISE SUPRISE! The MISLEADING population expansion OUT OF AFRICA comes from a Scandinavian region in Africa also, if you look at the map above. The image of our Mitochondria Eve out of Africa appears to represent the Scandinavian Nuclear DNA that contributed to the DNA of those travelers. They were not black Africans as we have been falsely taught. They were also the descendents of our ORIGINAL Mitochondria Mothers.

We have been so mislead as to our human origins by those who promote theories like evolution. If you study, what ancient Christians were taught what you find is that aliens CAN'T CREATE HUMAN BEINGS? Instead, to create physical beings aliens have to resort to genetic manipulation such as cloning to create all hybrid human beings and animals like bigfoot, dogman etc.

Some woman were re-abducted so the alien fetus could be TAKEN

Aliens have had to resort to manipulating the human fetus in the womb during abductions to change or modify that person.

EVOLUTION IS AN ILLUSION USED TO MISLEAD THE MASSES

This is why there is a Missing Link to the Evolution TheoryThis is why science has not found the illusive MISSING LINK.

TRACING EUROPEAN ANCESTRY

The genetic data shows that, beginning 37,000 years ago, all Europeans come from a single population that persisted through the Ice Age.

The founding population has deep branches in different parts of Europe, one of which is represented by a specimen from Belgium.

In fact, present-day Europeans can trace their ancestry back to this group of humans who lived in northwest Europe 35,000 years ago.

However, this founding population, which was part of the Aurignacian culture, became displaced when another group of early humans arrived on the scene in many parts of Europe 33,000 years ago.

This group was made up of members of a different culture known as the Gravettian.

Around 19,000 years ago, a population related to the Aurignacian culture re-expanded across Europe.

It is thought these people went on to repopulate Europe after ice sheets retreated.

Based on the earliest sample in which this ancestry is observed, it is plausible this population expanded from the southwest - present-day Spain - after the Ice Age peaked.

SCANDINAVILAN MIGRATION BACK NORTH AS THE MELTING DURING THE LAST ICE AGE WAS HAPPENING

A Scientists compared the genomic data in Scandinavia with the genetic variation of the contemporary farmers from other parts of Europe they were surprised to learn that farmers from the Norwegian Atlantic coast were genetically more similar to contemporaneous populations from the nations east of the Baltic Sea. However, farmers from what is Sweden today were genetically more similar to those from central and western Europe. One could say that – in Scandinavia at that time.

This contradiction between genetics and geography can only be explained by two main migrations into Scandinavia after the melting of the last Ice Age. It would have started with an initial migration from the south – modern day Denmark and Germany – that took place just after 11,700 years ago. Then there would have been an additional migration from the northeast, following the Atlantic coast in northern Finland and Norway as they were becoming free of ice.

The results, published in the PLOS Biology, agree with archaeological observations that the earliest occurrences of the new stone tool technology in Scandinavia were recorded in Finland, northwest Russia and Norway – dating to about 10,300 years ago. This kind of technology only appeared in southern Sweden and Denmark later on. Scandinavians originally came from Iceland and the North. They were considered, by all hybrid cultures, to be an incredible advanced race that lived BEYOND THE NORTH WINDS who had the DIVINE RIGHT TO RULE THE EARTH before they lost their lands and leadership to wars with the hybrid races. They were not warrior's they were peaceful farmers who had many advanced skills, wore cloths, were religious, artist's even musicians. .

Blue eyes, blonde hair

Knowing the genomes of these farming groups also allowed scientists to look deeper into the population dynamics in stone age Scandinavia. One consequence of the two groups mixing was a surprisingly large number of genetic variants in the Scandinavian farmers. These groups were genetically more diverse than the groups that lived in central, western and southern Europe at the same time. That is in stark contrast to the pattern we see today where more genetic variations are found in southern Europe vs the north.

Donald Trump is related to most Icelanders and Danish and Norwegian Royalty

President Donald J. Trump is the direct descendant of Hakon V King of Norway according to Icelandic genealogist Oddur F. Helgason. Mr. Trump is also related to Queen Margrethe II of Denmark, Icelandic President Guðni Th. Johannesson of Iceland, and in fact almost all Icelanders.
